$1,000 Reward

Release Date: March 6, 2009

San Diego County Crime Stoppers, working with San Diego Police Department Western Division detectives, is seeking any information regarding two unidentified male suspects wanted for burglarizing a local jewelry store.

On March 3, 2009, at about 3:00 a.m., two male suspects made entry into the Celebrity Gems and Jewelry Store at 2539 Congress Street in San Diego. The store owner, who lives in a suite above the store, heard the burglars inside and walked to the front of the store at the same time both suspects came running out. The store owner fired several rounds at the suspects; neither was hit by the gunfire. Both suspects fled the scene on foot and got away with loose stones, jewelry, and watches. There was a red SUV, similar to a Ford Expedition, seen leaving the area immediately after the burglary. A store surveillance camera captured multiple pictures of both suspects.
